Hebrews 13:7-17
How shall we then live? Part #2

The marvelous fact that Christ lives in us has everything to do with how we should live our Christian life.

Hebrews 13 NLT

7. Remember your leaders who taught you the word of God. Think of all the good that has come from their lives, and follow the example of their faith.

8. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

9. So do not be attracted by strange, new ideas. Your strength comes from God's grace, not from rules about food, which don't help those who follow them.

10. We have an altar from which the priests in the Tabernacle have no right to eat.

11. Under the old system, the high priest brought the blood of animals into the Holy Place as a sacrifice for sin, and the bodies of the animals were burned outside the camp.

12. So also Jesus suffered and died outside the city gates to make his people holy by means of his own blood.

13. So let us go out to him, outside the camp, and bear the disgrace he bore.

14. For this world is not our permanent home; we are looking forward to a home yet to come.

15. Therefore, let us offer through Jesus a continual sacrifice of praise to God, proclaiming our allegiance to his name.

16. And don't forget to do good and to share with those in need. These are the sacrifices that please God.

17. Obey your spiritual leaders, and do what they say. Their work is to watch over your souls, and they are accountable to God. Give them reason to do this with joy and not with sorrow. That would certainly not be for your benefit.

is above and beyond all entities; He is omnipotent”

How then should we live?

7. Remember those who rule over you, who have spoken the word of God to you, whose faith follow, considering the outcome of their conduct.

17 Obey those who rule over you, and be submissive, for they watch out for your souls, as those who must give an account. Let them do so with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday,
today
and forever.

9. Do not be carried about with various and strange doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them.

10. We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat.

11. For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp.

12. Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate.

13 Therefore let us go forth to Him, outside the camp, bearing His reproach.

14. For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come.

15. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

16. But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
